SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 6TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1911.

BENI MADHOO, Appellant,
versus

DORNFORD (Commissary), Respondent.

This is an appeal from a conviction on a charge of using a gun without a licence.

The sole reason for appeal which was argued is that there was not sufficient evidence to sustain the charge, the actual discharge of the gun not being seen by any of the witnesses, and the discharge of a gun on one occasion not being per se sufficient to prove user of the gun within the meaning of the law.

The witness Saffir states he heard the report of a gun and going in the direction of the sound saw the appellant with a gun in his hand and the appellant told him he had "fired the gun at a man." The Magistrate states he found the evidence satisfactory and if this witness' evidence was believed there was, in my opinion, sufficient evidence to justify the conclusion that the gun was not merely discharged, but "used" by the appellant, who had no licence, as is proved by the Commissary. The evidence of Saffir is, to some extent, corroborated by the fact that in one of the barrels of the gun which was seized soon after at the appellant's residence, there was a discharged cartridge.

The appeal is dismissed but without costs, there having been no appearance by or on behalf of the Commissary.

HENRY A. BOVELL, C.J.

VIVEIROS, Appellant,

versus

BAGOT, Respondent.

This is an appeal from a conviction for using abusive language to the annoyance of the respondent who was present in the place where the language was used.

The reasons for appeal (shortly stated) are in substance and effect, that the decision is erroneous in law, (a) the language not being abusive within the meaning of section 142 (2), Ordinance 17 of 1893, and (b) there being no evidence that the words were spoken to the annoyance of the respondent.

The respondent was called a "fool" and an "ass" and other opprobrious terms (according to some of the witnesses) were applied to her. The language was undoubtedly abusive and the respondent's annoyance thereat is clearly established.

The appeal is dismissed but without costs, there having been no appearance by or on behalf of the respondent.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 11TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1910.

LAWRENCE

JOHNSON.

Application by plaintiff to strike out or amend paragraphs in defendant's defence and for further and better particulars.

The plaintiff applies (1) to strike out or amend paragraphs 9, 10, 11, 12, and 14 of the defence on the ground that they tend to prejudice and embarrass him and (2) that defendant be ordered to deliver particulars as to the defence raised by paragraphs 5, 7 and 13.

The action is brought in respect of a promissory note which the defendant admits that he signed but alleges that this was done under protest and that immediately after it was so given, he notified plaintiff that he did not admit liability for the whole amount.

Paragraphs 9, 10 and 11, deny that defendant ever agreed to pay the charges set out in the respective schedules referred to therein and then in 9 and 10 it is stated that they are "unjust and illegal" while in 11 it is alleged that they "are not fair or reasonable."

In Lumb v. Beaumont (49 L.T.N.S. p. 774) the averment by the defendant that "the plaintiff acts as aforesaid were in various particulars unlawful" was held to be scandalous and embarrassing. So in the present case the statements that certain charges are "unjust and illegal" and "not fair or reasonable" raise no new issue if such is intended, and the plaintiff cannot tell as they stand what he will have to meet. These averments are therefore embarrassing and the paragraphs must be amended by striking them out.

As to paragraphs 12 the statement that the defendant is not liable to pay charges set out in schedule D, must stand. The ground of his alleged non-liability immediately follows, viz., that the plaintiff did not act on his behalf.

Paragraph 14 denies that the items in schedule F, were loans and then states that at the time these payments were made to defendant by the plaintiff he (the plaintiff) was indebted to the defendant to the extent of the said sums or thereabout.

The nature of the alleged indebtedness of the plaintiff to the defendant is not stated and the bald statement that he was so indebted must tend to embarrass the plaintiff. It is to be observed that the total amount claimed to be set off by the defendant in paragraph 15 of his defence is $380.17 and that this does not include the items referred to in paragraph 14. This paragraph must therefore be struck out.

The particulars asked for by the plaintiff are as to paragraph 5 whether the plaintiff is alleged to have pressed the defendant verbally or in writing. As to paragraph 7 when and where proceedings were threatened and whether verbally or in writing, when and where defendant protested and whether verbally or in writing, and whether the alleged notification to the plaintiff that defendant did not admit liability for the whole sum was verbal or in writing. As to paragraph 13 how much the defendant is alleged to have paid and when and where such payment was made. The plaintiff is entitled to all these particulars (Marshall vs. Pitcairn and Hohenkerk, 9th Oct. 1907). I direct that they be delivered within 4 days of the making of this order otherwise the defendant be precluded from giving evidence in support of these paragraphs and I extend the time for delivering plaintiff's reply to 10 days after delivery of the particulars.

The costs of this application must be paid by defendant.

EXTRACT FROM ORDINANCE NO. 12 OF 1891.

REGISTRATION.

33.—(1.) Every person who is liable to serve in the force shall, immediately on his becoming so liable, notify the Registrar of the City or County in which he resides, and shall furnish him with any particulars required for the purpose of registration.

(2.) Every person who contravenes this Section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-four dollars.

34.—(1.) Every person who changes his residence from a place where he is liable to serve in one Company to a place where he is liable to serve in another Company shall, within seven days after such change of residence, notify the Registrars of both places thereof: Provided that no such change of residence shall, unless the Governor otherwise orders, affect the liability to serve of any person who is, at the time of such change of residence, a member of the Active Force.

(2.) Every person who contravenes this Section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-four dollars.

37.—(1.) Within fourteen days after the publication of the list in the Official Gazette, any person whose name appears in the list and who considers that his name should not be retained therein may, by himself or by any other person, give notice in writing to the Registrar that he objects to the retention of his name in the list, and shall state in the notice the grounds of his objection.

(2.) The Registrar shall enquire into the objection, and may require such evidence from the person objecting as he may think fit, and shall communicate his decision on the objection to the person objecting.

(3.) If the decision is adverse to the person objecting, such person may, within three days after the decision has been communicated to him, appeal in writing addressed to the Governor, against the decision, and the decision of the Governor on the appeal shall be final.

38. Any changes made in the list under the provisions of the last preceding section shall be forthwith notified by the Registrar in the Official Gazette and in a newspaper of the Colony circulating in the City or County for which he is Registrar.

39. When the list has been finally settled, it shall be regarded and have effect as the Register of persons liable to serve in the Force for the City of Georgetown or for the particular County, as the case may be, for the remainder of the then current year and until the new Register has been established in the ensuing year: Provided that additions may at any time be made to the Register as hereinbefore mentioned.

EXTRACT FROM ORDINANCE NO. 12 OF 1891.

REGISTRATION.

33.—(1.) Every person who is liable to serve in the Force shall, immediately on his becoming so liable, notify the Registrar of the City or County in which he resides, and shall furnish him with any particulars required for the purpose of registration.

(2.) Every person who contravenes this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-four dollars.

34.—(1.) Every person who changes his residence from a place where he is liable to serve in one Company to a place where he is liable to serve in another Company shall, within seven days after such change of residence, notify the Registrars of both places thereof: Provided that no such change of residence shall, unless the Governor otherwise orders, affect the liability to serve of any person who is, at the time of such change of residence, a member of the active Force.

(2.) Every person who contravenes this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-four dollars.

37.—(1.) Within fourteen days after the Publication of the list in the Official Gazette, any person whom name appears in the list and who considers that his name should not be retained therein may, by himself or by any other person, give notice in writing to the Registrar that he objects to the retention of his name in the list and shall state in the notice the grounds of his objection.

(2.) The Registrar shall enquire into the objection, and may require such evidence from the person objecting as he may think fit, and shall communicate his decision on the objection to the person objecting.

(3.) If the decision is adverse to the person objecting, such person may, within three days after the decision has been communicated to him, appeal, in writing addressed to the Governor, against the decision, and the decision of the Governor on the appeal shall be final.

38. Any changes made in the list under the provisions of the last preceding section shall be forthwith notified by the Registrar in the Official Gazette and in a newspaper of the Colony circulating in the City or County for which he is Registrar.

39. When the list has been finally settled, it shall be regarded and have effect as the Register of persons liable to serve in the Force for the City of Georgetown, or for the particular County, as the case may be, for the remainder of the then current year, and until the new register has been established in the ensuing year. Provided that additions may at any time be made to the Register as hereinbefore mentioned.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 17TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1911.

TAPPERSIAH

versus

JACOB DAVIS.

This is an appeal from the decision of Mr. W. J. Gilchrist, acting Stipendiary Magistrate, Berbice Judicial District, who convicted the appellant on a charge for that the said Tappersiah on the 12th September, 1910, did make use of insulting language to complainant whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

The reasons for appeal are as follows:

1. That the decision is erroneous in point of law: (a) because it was not proved that the defendant used any insulting language to the complainant, whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned; (b) that no breach of the peace may have been occasioned from the evidence even if believed.

2. That the decision is altogether unwarranted by the evidence in like manner as if the case had been tried by a jury, there would not have been sufficient evidence to sustain the verdict.

The Magistrate, in his reasons for decision, states: "I believe the complainant and his witnesses. I place absolutely no reliance on the testimony of the defendant and her witnesses."

The facts in this case differ from the facts in Minigree v. Bookie, 27th August, 1909.

There is ample evidence for the prosecution, that insulting language was used and that a breach of the peace may be occasioned, to justify the Magistrate in coming to the decision he did, he believing, as he states, such evidence.

The appeal is dismissed and the Magistrate's decision affirmed but without costs, there being no appearance of respondent.

MANOEL CARREGA

versus

J. R. HILL, acting County Inspector of Police.

This is an appeal from the decision of Mr. E. J. Macquarrie, acting Stipendiary Magistrate of the Berbice Judicial District, convicting appellant on a charge brought by the respondent for that he, on the 3rd September, 1910, at Strand, in the town of New Amsterdam, did place certain things, to wit, boxes, so that the same projected beyond the line of his buildings at which the same is so placed so as to obstruct the passage of J. R. Hill, acting County Inspector of Police, along such public way, contrary to law.

In his reasons for decision the Magistrate states: "The evidence satisfies me that defendant placed, either personally or by his servants, boxes on a certain pavement which has been used by the public for over 30 years without prohibition beyond the line of the building at which they were placed so as to obstruct the complainant passing along it on the 3rd September. The only question which arises is whether the complainant was passing along a public way. 'Public way' is defined by the Ordinance under which the charge is brought as any which is lawfully used by the public. The public is defined as persons inhabiting or using any particular place or any number of such persons. Now the spot over which the complainant was passing when obstructed is a pavement running the length of defendant's buildings and of varying width and abutting on the public road. It is clear from Mr. Scudamore's examination-in-chief that it is possible for persons walking on the public road proper to step on to the pavement at one end and walk straight along it to the other end and so again on to the public road. The public road is lawfully used by the public and it seems to me that on the evidence the only conclusion possible is that the pavement is a way which is lawfully used by all those intermediate persons who are in the habit of using it as a way and therefore a public way for the purpose of the section. The pavement appears to be merely a part of the public road paved by the defendant's predecessors. Mr. Scudamore's statement in cross-examination that the line of electric light posts is usually taken as the west boundary of the street can only be taken as an expression of opinion as to the position of the boundary between the road and the lot cannot affect the determination of the question as to whether the pavement is or is not a public way."

The reasons for appeal are:—

1. That the decision is erroneous in point of law:

(a.) because there is no evidence and it was not proved that the defendant by himself or his servant on the 3rd day of September, or any other day "placed" the subject matter of the charge or complaint, "boxes," so that the same projected beyond the line of his building within the meaning of s. 156 ss 7, 17 of 1893;

(b.) because it was not proved that the passage of the complainant was obstructed over or along a public way;

(c.) because it was not proved that the part of the pavement where the alleged obstruction took place was a public way or a way which is lawful to be used by the public;

(d.) because even if intermediate persons use the pavement there is no evidence that it is lawfully used so as to make it a public way;

(e.) because even if the pavement has been used by the public for over 30 years without prohibition, there being evidence that the owners have always placed boxes there the conviction would be bad in law;

(f.) because on the evidence the alleged use by the alleged public of the pavement is co-equal with the right of placing boxes on the pavement;

(g.) because it was not proved that the user of the pavement by the public was uninterrupted.

2. That the Magistrate's Court has exceeded its jurisdiction in the case inasmuch as the Magistrate's Court determined a question bono fide arisen of interest in and accruing to immovable property, a right of way or a servitude.

3. That the decision is altogether unwarranted by the evidence in like manner as if the case had been tried by a jury there would not have been sufficient evidence to sustain the verdict as stated above.

Section 156 of Ordinance 17 of 1893, provides: "Every person who does any of the following acts shall in every such case, on being convicted thereof, be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars," that is to say, "every person who, ss. (7) places, hangs up or otherwise exposes on any town any goods, wares, or merchandise or other thing whatsoever so that the same project or projects into or over any public way or beyond the line of any house, shop, or building at which the same is or are so exposed so as to obstruct or incommode the passage of any person over or along any public way."

The Magistrate states that the evidence satisfies him that defendant placed, either personally or by his servants, the boxes in question. Mr. Hill, in his evidence, says: I cannot swear that defendant placed these boxes there nor who did. I did not see anyone do so. Corporal Strick and the other witnesses make no mention of having seen anyone place boxes there on the 3rd September or at any time. I cannot see how from the evidence before him the Magistrate could be satisfied that the plaintiff personally or by his servant placed the boxes there. The Court is very loath to interfere with the finding of a Magistrate on a matter of fact where there is evidence to justify such finding, but in this case there is no evidence, in my opinion, to justify the finding that the defendant personally or by his servants placed the boxes in question. It is not necessary, therefore, to deal with the other reasons of appeal.

The appeal is allowed and the Magistrate's decision reversed with costs.

LIONEL E. HAWTAYNE, acting J.

J. E. PEROT & COY., LTD.

versus

HENRIETTA HENRY.

This is an appeal from the decision of Mr. W. J. Gilchrist, acting Stipendiary Magistrate, Berbice Judicial District, who non-suited the appellant, plaintiff in the court below, in the following claim.

J. E. Perot & Co., Limited, a firm carrying on business at Straud, New Amsterdam, versus Henrietta A. Henry, widow, as having been married in community of property D. E. Henry (deceased), of Gibraltar Village, East Coast, Berbice. The plaintiff claims from the defendant the sum of $77.50 being amount due, owing and payable by the defendant aforesaid to the plaintiff on an overdue promissory note made by the defendant's testator D. C. Henry in his life-time whereby the said D. C. Henry one month after date promised to pay to the said plaintiff or order at the British Guiana Bank, Berbice, bearing date 19th September, 1907, in the Berbice Judicial District, the sum of $77.50 for value received and which said promissory note was presented at the said British Guiana Bank, Berbice, for payment when the same had matured and became due and payable but was dishonoured whereof the said D. C. Henry had notice, &c.

Counsel in the court below took the preliminary objection that the claim was incorrectly brought and the Magistrate non-suited plaintiff.

The reasons for appeal are as follows:—That the decision is erroneous in point of law: (a) because there is no defence to the action; (b) because the sum sued for is a joint debt contracted in the life-time of the defendant's deceased husband to whom she was married in community of property; (c) that the defendant is rightly sued, and is in law responsible for the whole amount.

As to reason (a) I am of opinion that counsel for defendant adopted the correct procedure in taking his objection before stating his defence to the action.

In arguing reasons (b) and (c), counsel stated that he was aware that the defendant's husband did not die intestate and admitted that he had had the will some time previous to this suit in his possession, but that such will had not been deposited. He also argued that even if a will was in existence and even if it had been deposited, the plaintiff would have the right to elect as to whether he should sue the defendant or the executor of the estate. Besides the admission by counsel, it is clear that the plaintiff knew of the existence of the will as on the claim he refers to the note as made by the defendant's testator.

It is clear that the common property would be liable for payment of all debts before a division could be made, but I am of opinion that it having been proved that the defendant's husband died testate, that proceedings cannot be taken in this form.

The appeal is dismissed, the Magistrate's decision upheld with costs.

L. E. HAWTAYNE, Actg. J.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 17TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1911.

S. DAVSON & COY., LTD.

versus

A. W. FAWKES.

The plaintiffs claim the sum of $211.18 being balance due, owing and payable by the defendant to the plaintiffs for money lent and advanced by the plaintiffs to defendant at his request on 2nd August, 1907.

The defendant denies that the plaintiffs lent or advanced him the sum of $218.70 or any sum whatever or that he paid the plaintiffs on account of such loan the sums of $4.48 or $30.4. He states that in pursuance of an agreement between plaintiffs and him-elf he received the sum of $218.70 as an advance for an expedition to collect balata for plaintiffs Company, which sum he so expended and that in the month of October, 1907, the plaintiffs broke the same agreement.

I am satisfied from the evidence that the sum claimed was advanced as a loan, and not under an agreement as alleged by the defendant.

Judgment for plaintiffs with costs.

LIONEL E. HAWTAYNE, Acting J.

C. L. WHYTE

versus

G. L. GRANDSOULT.

The plaintiff claims from the defendant a just true and correct statement and account of the dealings and intromissions of the defendant with the plaintiff's stock-in-trade and goods and of the defendants takings and receipt from the sale thereof between the month of July, 1909, and the month of February, 1910, when the plaintiff took over from the defendant the residue of the said stock and goods to the value of $56.16 and payment by the defendant to the plaintiff of so much money as may be found to be due from defendant to the plaintiff upon such statement and account—or in default of the rendering of a just true and correct statement of account as aforesaid that the defendant be condemned to pay the plaintiff the sum of $1,428.96.

It appears from the evidence that the plaintiff carried on a tailoring business by himself, and subsequently he and defendant carried on a separate business in co-partnership under the style of Whyte and Grandsoult. The plaintiff had dealings in his separate tailoring business with the firm of Whyte and Grandsoult and in their books an account was opened debiting Whyte's tailoring business with goods purchased by him from Whyte and Grandsoult. The plaintiff became dangerously ill and could not look after his tailoring business and defendant in the month of August, 1909, took charge of the same on behalf of the plaintiff, and on the 13th August took stock of such business. The books of Whyte and Grandsoult under the heading tailoring account shows an entry in pencil in defendant's handwriting "By goods taken at Stock" and it is clear that figures were placed opposite that entry on the credit side showing the value of the stock as taken by the defendant. These figures however, have been erased.

Both the plaintiff and his witness Haynes examined that book before the erasure was made and both swore that the figures were $756.60 and I believe their evidence.

I order that defendant renders accounts in accordance with order 29 of the Rules of Court to the Accountant of Court as from the 13th day of August, 1909, within 28 days from date hereof and such accounts to be verified by affidavit.

LIONEL E. HAWTAYNE, acting J.

MANOEL DE JESUS, as having been married in community of property to his wife Maria De Jesus, born Ferreira.

versus

MARY GEORGE, singlewoman.

This is an opposition to sale at execution of the west half of lot letter M, containing in the whole 315 rods, and on the building lot No. 20, containing 40 rods part of Plantation Edinburgh, situate on the east bank of the River Berbice, as advertised in the "Official Gazette" under dates 18th, 25th June and 2nd July, 1910.

I find that one John Ferreira, brother of the plaintiff's wife, in his life-time, agreed to purchase the land in question from one Drummond and paid certain sums of money on account of such purchase but never received any title to the said land. On his death intestate, his sister, Maria De Jesus, born Ferreira, became his sole heir.

I hold that the plaintiff having no title to the land in question, cannot oppose the sale of the same at execution, the judgment-debtor Drummond still having the title in him. The opposition is declared unjust, illegal and not well founded. Judgment for defendant with costs.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 17TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1911.

LE GAY

versus

VIEIRA AND DANIELS.

The plaintiff by this action seeks to recover the sum of $666 from the defendants as the drawers of a cheque dated 7th December, 1910, payable to L. A. Baron or bearer and which was endorsed by the said L. A. Baron to the plaintiff and was on presentation on 13th December, 1910, dishonoured and of which the defendants had due notice.

The defendants deny: (1) indebtedness; (2) notice of dishonour; (3) that plaintiff is the holder, and they further allege that if such endorsement and delivery was made it was a colourable transaction carried out to avoid their claim to the proceeds thereof and they counter-claim from the plaintiff and his partner Baron the sum of $1,500 as damages in respect of the said partner Baron having trespassed on and worked certain claims of the defendants from which a quantity of gold was won by him and sold to the defendants whereby he obtained the cheque now sued on by the plaintiff.

The following facts are not in dispute: (1) that the defendants gave the cheque now sued on for the gold alleged by them to have been obtained from their claim; (2) that the defendants stopped payment of same; (3) that on presentation on 13th December, payment was refused; (4) that the defendants have licence claims in respect of four tracts of Crown land situate in District 4, at Wenamu, Cuyuni, located in August, 1910, and (5) that plaintiff with his partner Baron obtained a licence in respect of one tract of land in the same district which, according to the licence, was located on 1st October, 1910, but according to the evidence of Baron on 8th November, 1910.

As to notice of dishonour the defendants who were the drawers admit that they stopped payment and by section 50 (2) (c) (5) of The Bills of Exchange Ordinance No. 13 of 1891, such notice is dispensed with under these circumstances (see also Hill v. Heap R.R. 791.)

Plaintiff admits the partnership between himself and Baron and that he saw R/D on the cheque before he cashed it and that he knew this meant "refer to drawer." With this knowledge he says he cashed the cheque and out of it $200 was paid for provisions three of the four men employed got $45 each and the other got $50 while Baron and he got $140 each. Baron says that he got the $400 in cash from plaintiff to pay the men, and that after paying all expenses, plaintiff and he got each of them $150. Witness Blake called by plaintiff, who is one of the four men referred to by plaintiff, says that up to the present time he has not been paid for his work, Baron having told him that he had no money to pay him. This Court regards it as highly improbable that the plaintiff would have cashed a cheque with the full knowledge that payment on presentation at the bank had been refused. On the evidence adduced it is disposed to think that no money passed but that it was endorsed by one partner to the other as Baron hesitated to sue in his own name.

As to the alleged offer of $400 by the defendant Vieira which is deposed to by Baron, and two other witnesses each of these witnesses varies as to the place in the Empire Hotel where such an offer was made while Baron admits that at the same time Vieira told him that he believed he had worked the gold from his (Vieira's) claim. The Court on this evidence cannot find that such an offer was made.

The evidence as to the claim from which the gold in question was won remains to be considered. The plaintiff's witnesses depose to its having been obtained from the claim in Wenamu located by Baron in behalf of plaintiff and himself. It is admitted by the plaintiff and his partner Baron that in order to obtain a licence in respect of this claim they informed the Lands and Mines Department on 18th November that the 105 ozs. gold on which royalty was then paid by them was obtained from this claim whereas according to their evidence in Court it was won across the border in Venezuelan territory. This admitted deception on their part tends to affect their credibility as to the land from which the gold sold by them to defendants was obtained. It is further admitted by the plaintiff's witnesses that they were asked by defendant Daniels to assist in driving off pork knockers who had taken possession of their (defendants') claim. The evidence for the defence tends to show that instead of removing these trespassers the witness Baron and his men joined them and obtained gold from the claim. Any doubt on the point is removed by the evidence of Mr. Mullin, Warden of No. 4 Mining District, in which defendants claim is situate, he says that he visited this claim on 18th November, and found some 16 or 18 men working it. He identifies Baron, Ernest Le Gay (plaintiff's brother), and the brothers Eyle as amongst these men, he says that he caught and stopped them and adds "the claim was worked clean out almost." Exhibit 2 shows the amount of gold, 40 ozs., won by plaintiff and Baron in November and on the 18th of that month, the very day on which the Warden found Baron and his men working the defendants' claim, there is an entry of 1 oz., 10 dwts. having been won. There is further evidence that they worked no other claim than that of defendants' and that after the Warden left they returned and continued to work this claim until they left in December.

On a careful consideration of the whole of the evidence this Court finds that the 40 ozs. gold sold to the defendants by Baron and for which the cheque now sued on was given, was obtained from the defendants' claim and that the plaintiff was not the holder for value. On these findings there must be judgment for the defendants on the claim and counter-claim. On the question of damages the gold actually shown to have been won from their claim is in the possession of the defendants. There remains to be considered the damage for the trespass committed. This trespass is aggravated by the fact that advantage is taken by plaintiff and his partner to enter on a claim remote from police protection where at some cost and trouble the defendants had located gold. I assess the damages on the counter-claim at $240 and give judgment for the defendant in this amount with costs.

ABDOOL RAHIM.

This is an action to prevent the sale at execution of the east half of lot number 10, situate at Plantation Anna Catharina, West Coast, without reserving and excepting a certain building thereon, the property of the plaintiff.

The only point for decision is whether or not it was necessary to except the building which belongs to the plaintiff. It is argued by Counsel for defendant that if this building had been included it would have been so stated. It would seem that a sale of land would be held to include the buildings on it, they should therefore be expressly excepted. (Da Silva v. Vieira, 9.9.10.)

If such buildings are chattels, O. 42 r. 1 (2) provides that, where claim is made thereto, relief may be granted by way of interpleader. Exhibit B in the present case shows that plaintiff leased for a term of 10 years the lands on which his building stands with the right of renewal for a further period of 10 years, there is a further condition that the plaintiff shall have the option of purchase if the land at any time is sold. Although the plaintiff does not oppose on the ground that his lease is unreserved, the fact that he has such a lease together with his option of purchase point to the building being immovable. This action is therefore correctly brought.

This Court as Guardian of Minors must draw attention to the transport (Exhibit A) tendered and admitted in the course of this trial. This shows that the east half of lot 10, the identical piece of land taken in execution in the suit of Abdool Rahim, (Judgment Creditor and defendant in this action) v. J. N. Douglas (Judgment Debtor), is the property of the minors Chow-a-Shing, and that their mother and natural guardian Eliza Chow-a-Singh, appeared for them, it was from her in that capacity that the present plaintiff obtained his lease on 4th January, 1910. It would seem that the property is still in these minors and yet we have it levied on as the property of J. N. Douglas and no opposition entered in their behalf. Attention is drawn to O. 36, r. 40 of the Rules of Court which requires a statement in writing verified by affidavit to be given by the judgment creditor as to the facts constituting the title of the judgment debtor to the immovable property sought to be levied on. It is not easy to see how this rule was complied with by the defendant in the present action.

The Court declares the opposition to be just, legal and well founded, orders the levy and advertisement of sale to be cancelled and withdrawn, and orders the defendant to pay the costs of this action.

HING CHEONG & LTD. (in Liquidation.)

versus

WILLIAM MAN-SON-HING.

This is an application by the defendant for leave to issue third party notice under O. 14. r. 16 of the Rules of Court.

The application first came before the Court on 23rd January, 1911, when the plaintiff who had received notice of the intended application under O. 40 r. 4, appeared to oppose it. The question was then raised as to whether that was the proper time for their being heard or whether it ought to be when application was made for directions. On 4th February, 1911, the Court held that the plaintiffs were entitled to be then heard (Finlay & Co. v. Scott and Son Weekly Notes, 1884, p. 8), but desired to hear counsel for the applicant as to non-service of the intended application on the person sought to be made a third party. In the result the Court held that under O. 40r. 4, this person was "a party to be affected" and ought therefore to have had notice of the intended application, and under r. 7 of the same Order adjourned the hearing in order that such notice might be given to such person—to the 18th February, on which day counsel was heard in behalf of each party.

The present action is brought against the defendant in respect of an agreement entered into by him with the plaintiffs and under which it is admitted that he is liable for the amount of $7,003 28 in respect of which he claims contribution from his late partner John Tat. This amount represents according to statement A, attached to the affidavit of the applicant the stock-in-trade and book debts of the Bartica Groete creek and Black creek shops. This matter was dealt with in the taking of the accounts in the original action Tat v. Man-Son-Hing and subsequently by the Full Court on plaintiffs' application for judgment. This is admitted by counsel for the applicant but it is argued that what was a fictitious condition of things became on the sale taking place a reality and that therefore he is entitled to contribution. This Court cannot countenance what must be regarded as an attempt to get behind the judgment of the Full Court with the view of reopening a point settled by that judgment. Applicant must show a reasonable case on which he may succeed on his claim for indemnity. This Court cannot see any fair ground for putting forward the present claim and therefore leave should not be granted.

As to the plaintiffs. They object to the granting of leave on the ground that their action rests on a specific agreement and in no way on an alleged partnership debt and that the applicant admits that under this agreement he is alone liable to the plaintiffs. This being so it is clear that between the plaintiffs and the defendant the action is undefended and it would appear unjust to expose the former to what may be great expense and trouble in having their action tried (Schneider v. Butts and Co., 50 L. J., Q.B., 389.) So far as the plaintiffs are concerned it would seem that the applicant if he had the right of action against a third party should resort to that action independently of the plaintiffs.

This application must be refused with costs.

THIS 4TH DAY OF MARCH, 1911.

Re THE COMPANIES' ORDINANCE, 1898, AND re THE PEOPLE LIVERY STABLES, LTD.,
AND re Petition of W. B. PAYNE.

This is an application to wind up this Company under sect. 124 of the Companies Ordinance, 1898.

The certificate laid over shows that the Company was incorporated as a Limited Company on 9th September, 1904.

The facts set out in the petition are sufficient in themselves to satisfy this Court that it is just and equitable that the Company should be wound up but it is opposed by Mr. F. J. Pollard one of the Directors who denies paragraph 34 of the petition wherein he is stated to have obtained undue preference over other creditors and he further alleges that a resolution was passed for the voluntary winding up of the Company on 4th April, 1907. According to his affidavit the Company owed him $4,000, and that it was in consequence of this that an agreement and settlement with the liquidators was made. It would appear from the records of this Court that Mr. F. J. Pollard applied on 12th March, 1907, for the appointment of a provisional liquidator and that on the following day he withdrew his application, it having been decided that the Company should be wound up voluntarily. It is stated by Counsel for Mr. Pollard that Messrs A. B. Brown and E. A. V. Abraham, two of the Directors, were appointed to wind up the Company and this Court is asked to grant leave to have these gentlemen summoned with a view of discovering the actual position of the Company and if expedient to order them to take up their duties as liquidators.

The Court is not satisfied that under the Ordinance or the Rules made thereunder, it has the power at this stage to summon these parties before it but there can be no doubt that such an order may be made after a winding up order has been obtained (sect. 169).

The petitioner in his affidavit in reply to that of Mr. Pollard denies the appointment of liquidators. Moreover, it is shown that although nearly four years have elapsed since these alleged appointments were made the provisions of sect. 184 (2) have not been complied with. Counsel for Mr. Pollard admits that the winding up order would not be objected to if he is not called upon to pay certain moneys.

This Court directs that the Company be wound up by the Court, but declines to make any order on the present application as specially asked for in paragraph 35 of the petition.

The parties are granted costs of his application.

CHUNG AND COMPANY, LIMITED,

versus

LOPES.

This is an application by the plaintiff Company under O. 36, r. 18 of the Rules of Court for a renewal of a Writ of Execution issued against the defendant on 5th April, 1909. Under this rule it may be renewed at any time before its expiration. The defendant upon whom notice of the intended application has been served does not appear.

A reference to O. 45, r. 4, shows that this Court has power to enlarge or abridge the time given by these rules although the application is not made until after the expiration of the time allowed. The questions that arise are (1) does the present application come within this rule and (2) if it does, ought the Court to exercise its discretion in favour of the applicant. As to 1, our local rule corresponds with O. 37, r. 6, of the Rules of Court, 1875, under which the Master of the Rolls allowed a writ of summons to be renewed although the 12 months had elapsed, before the expiration of which, application for renewal was required to be made. Eyre v. Cox, 46, L. J. Ch. 316.

As to 2. Under the circumstances detailed by Counsel for the applicant it would seem just and proper that a renewal of this Writ should be allowed. The application is therefore granted.

2. The directors may grant leave of absence to any director for any period not exceeding four months at any one time, provided that not more than three directors shall be absent from the colony on leave at one and the same time; and should any director be absent from four consecutive meetings of the Board without leave or reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the directors, his place shall become vacant and his seat shall be immediately filled by the election of another director in his stead by the remaining directors.

3. The directors may grant leave of absence to the auditors for any period not exceeding six months and not extending beyond the General Meeting in July, provided that satisfactory arrangements are made for auditing the books during such absence.

4. All premiums shall be paid in advance and unpaid moieties shall immediately become due should the Company sustain losses to such an extent as will exhaust the amount at credit of the premium capital.

5. A separate account shall be kept of all premiums according to the year in which the policies in respect of which such premiums have been received shall become entitled to profit, but whenever in any financial year there shall be losses exceeding the sum of thirty thousand dollars then the policies taken out during the remainder of that year, and after such losses, shall not contribute thereto.

6. All premiums received on annual policies not entitled to profit shall be credited to an account under the head of "Annual Policies without Profits."

7. All premiums received on short-time policies shall be credited to an account under the head of "Short-Time Policies."

8. All premiums received on policies which have lapsed and are not intended to be revived, on policies which have been surrendered and are not entitled to profit, on policies which have become claims, and on such portions of the insurance under policies which have been reduced in amount by claims, shall be transferred to an account under the head of "Premiums on Extinct Policies."

9. The working expenses of the Company including remuneration of staff and servants, office rent, printing, advertising, cost of stationery and books and other office expenses shall be kept under the head of "Charges Account."

10. All claims against and admitted by the Company under its policies of insurance shall be debited to an account under the head of "Claims Admitted."

11. All commission and other expenses paid to the respective agents shall be debited to an account under the head of "Agencies Charges Account."

12. All interest and dividends received or accrued, shall be credited to an account under the head of "Interest Account."

13. At the 30th June in each year the following accounts, namely :—Annual Policies without Profits, Short-Time Policies, Premiums on Extinct Policies, Charges Account, Claims Admitted, Agencies Charges Account, and Interest Account shall be closed by the respective balances being transferred to the debit or credit, as the case may require, of "Profit and Loss (Annual) Account." Provided that one-half of the current premium on annual policies without profits and the whole of the current premium on short-time policies shall be excepted from the transfer and left at credit of the accounts under those heads.

14. Losses other than claims through fire may, at the discretion of the directors, be charged either to Profit and Loss Account or to Investments Reserve.

15. An amount equal to six months' premium shall be deducted from the premium last paid on all policies entitled to profit and shall be credited to an account for policies which will be so entitled three years later. This entry shall be made before the close of the "Profit and Loss (Annual) Account."

16. At the 30th June in each year, the balance at debit of the "Profit and Loss (Annual) Account" shall be transferred to the debit of the several accounts then open under the head of "Policies entitled to Profit"; that opened under By-law No. 15 for policies entitled to profit three years later to be excepted. The proportion to be debited to each of the said accounts shall be calculated according to the amount then at its credit.

17. The amount then remaining at the credit of the account or accounts open for policies then entitled to profit being the profit for the triennial period shall be transferred to "Profit and Loss (Triennial) Account" to be apportioned as follows :—

A percentage to be fixed by the directors shall be transferred to the credit of Scrip Dividend Account and the balance either issued in scrip, debenture bonds or stock, or paid in cash, or partly in one and partly in another as the directors may determine; provided however that before such division the directors may, if they think fit, transfer a portion to the credit of a reserve fund for the purpose of reducing the amount at debit of "Profit and Loss (Annual Account)" in any year where losses by claims are considered excessive if the directors so decide.

18.—(1.) Any scrip, debenture bonds or debenture stock hereafter issued in pursuance of By-law No. 17 may rank pari passu with existing scrip or may be issued having a preference as to capital or interest or both over existing scrip as the directors may determine, and shall bear interest at such rate and be redeemable on such terms and conditions as the directors may decide.

(2.) Any scrip, debenture bonds or debenture stock and any reserve fund created under the provisions of By-Law No. 17 shall, like the Augmentation Fund, be credited with interest at the average rate earned.

19. Any amount remaining at credit of any debenture interest account after payment of interest on the debenture capital may be carried to the credit of the reserve fund created under By-Law No. 17 or any other reserve fund as the directors may determine.

20. The working expenses and losses shall, subject to the discretion exercisable by the directors under the Company's Ordinance or these By-laws, be defrayed out of the respective funds of the Company, in the undermentioned order, that is to say each separate fund, in the order given, shall first be exhausted, before recourse may be had to the next following:—

- (1.) The interest and dividends accruing on the premium capital;
- (2.) The premium capital;
- (3.) The amount at any time at the credit of the scrip dividend account;
- (4.) The amount at any time at the credit of the account to be kept under the provisions of section 70 of the Company's Ordinance;
- (5.) The dividend augmentation fund;
- (6.) The scrip capital or any other fund ranking pari passu;
- (7.) The amount at any time at the credit of any debenture interest account;
- (8.) The debenture capital (if any);
- (9.) The amount at the credit of any reserve fund created under By-Law No. 17;
- (10.) Any other fund.

21. The share of profits to which a current policy is entitled shall be calculated on the amount of premiums actually paid thereon during the three years ending on the 30th day of June of any year after deducting, firstly, an amount equal to six months premium thereon, and secondly, a proper share of the working expenses and losses. Provided that if the policy has been reduced through a claim for loss, the profits shall be calculated only in respect of the premiums paid on that portion of the insurance remaining in force.

22. The holder of a policy participating in profits for the first time on which more than two annual premiums have been paid, on surrendering such policy shall be entitled to profit at the end of the then current triennial period, but such holder shall previously thereto be required to pay any instalment of the last year's premium which may not then have accrued, and the profit shall be calculated on the amount of premiums at credit of the policy after deduction of its share of the working expenses and losses.

23. The holder of any policy participating in profits on which profit has been declared, may at any time thereafter surrender such policy and be entitled to share thereon in the profits of the Company at the next ensuing declaration.

24. In case the Directors refuse to sanction the transfer of a policy or in case they determine the contract under a policy, the holder shall be entitled to receive back a proportion of the premium last paid corresponding with the unexpired portion of the period for which such premium has been paid, and such holder shall be entitled to participate in any profits declared at the next declaration on the premiums remaining at credit of the policy.

25. Where the holder of any policy not participating in profits surrenders such policy for cancellation or reduction of the amount of insurance he shall be entitled to a refund of the balance (if any) of the premium paid on the amount so cancelled or reduced after deduction of the proper premium for the time expired calculated at the nearest short-time rates.

26. Where a policy is reduced in amount within six months after the date of issue or renewal of the policy, the premium thereafter shall be calculated on the reduced amount of the policy; and, in case the full year's premium has been paid, the holder of the policy shall be entitled to a refund of one-half of the premium paid on the amount by which the policy is reduced.

27. Where the rate of premium on any policy, the premium on which is payable by instalments, is reduced within six months after the date of issue or renewal of the policy the second instalment shall be paid at the reduced rate and in case the premium is payable annually the holder of the policy shall be entitled to a refund of half of the amount by which the premium is reduced; provided that the directors may, in either case, refund the whole or a portion of the amount already paid by which the premium is reduced if no profit has been declared on such premium.

28. Whenever it is shown to the satisfaction of the directors that through inadvertence a premium has been paid where no risk existed they may refund the amount or any portion thereof so paid provided that no profit has been declared on such premium.

29. The directors may, on request, revive any lapsed policy, on such terms and conditions as they think fit.

30. If any policy of insurance be lost, the directors may issue a copy thereof on payment of a fee of one dollar and the stamp duty.

31. Should the Scrip Capital be at any time reduced by losses the directors shall require the surrender of all the existing certificates of scrip, in exchange for others representing the reduced amount to which the holders of the surrendered scrip shall be entitled, unless it be decided under the provisions of section 65 (5) of the Company's Ordinance to restore the Scrip Capital out of future dividends.

32. Should the holder of any certificate of scrip fail to surrender the same when required to do so for the purpose stated in By-law No. 31 the directors may withhold the payment of any dividend thereon until such certificate be surrendered.

33. Any scrip-holder on acquiring by transfer any additional scrip may be required to surrender his certificate or certificates in order that a new certificate may be issued for the aggregate amount of his holding.

34.—(1.) All transfers of scrip shall be made at the office of the Company in a book to be kept for that purpose in the following form:—

No transfer shall be allowed without the surrender of the certificate.

36. Should any certificate of scrip or debenture stock be lost, the director shall require the holder thereof to make declaration in writing of such loss, which shall then be notified to the public by advertisement three times in at least one newspaper in the colony, at his expense, and at the expiration of one month from the date of the first advertisement, the directors may issue a new certificate in lieu of the one so lost on his paying the stamp duty.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 4TH DAY OF MARCH, 1911.

GONSALVES.

This is an application by the defendant for leave to defend under O. 12, R. 2. The plaintiff does not object to such leave being granted but desires the ruling of this Court as to whether or not a Solicitor can appear and instruct Counsel unless he has an authorization in writing from the defendant to act for him.

O. 10, R. 1 provides that appearance shall be entered at the office of the Registrar, except when the writ has been specially endorsed, and O. 12, R. 1 provides that in these special cases, the parties shall appear at the time named in the writ before a Judge and the appearance of defendant shall be deemed an appearance in the action.

These rules are clear and unambiguous, the additional rule to O. 10, R. 1 made under the Rules of Court (3rd May, 1910,) cannot be regarded as nullifying the provisions thereof. This latter rule would seem to refer to an appearance in the Registrar's Office and not before a Judge as it refers to the authorization in question being endorsed on the memorandum of appearance and if not so endorsed to "be filed therewith" that is, with the memorandum of appearance referred to in O. 10, R. 6.

It must be observed that by O. 10, R. 14 a defendant having obtained leave to defend is required at or before filing his statement of defence to file a memorandum containing his address for service. It would seem that to enable a Solicitor to do this in behalf of a defendant he should duly file therewith his authorization in writing.

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Combined Court thereof, as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Customs Duties Ordinance, Short title. 1911.

2. General
duties.

3. There shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, for the public use of this Colony, upon all goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated in the First Schedule to this Ordinance, and not hereinafter exempted from payment of duty, which shall be imported into this Colony, or taken out of bond for consumption in this Colony, an ad valorem duty at the rate of fifteen per centum or fifteen dollars upon every one hundred dollars, of the actual cost of such goods, wares, and merchandise, and in addition to such duty ten per centum thereof.

Duty free
goods.
Second Schedule.

4. The goods, wares and merchandise, enumerated in the Second Schedule to this Ordinance, which shall be imported into this Colony, shall be exempt from the payment of duty.

Mode of ascertaining
duties.

5.—(1.) The cost of goods, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the ad valorem duty payable thereon, shall be calculated, if the goods have been purchased by the importer or consignor thereof, on the price charged for the said goods by the vendor thereof as verified by the genuine invoice of such goods, and, if procured otherwise than by bonâ fide purchase, calculated on the actual market value or wholesale price of such goods at the time of exportation to this Colony in the principal markets of the Country whence such goods were imported: Provided always that the Comptroller or the proper Officer of Customs is satisfied in the case of goods alleged to be purchased of the fact of purchase, that the entries in such invoice are true, and that the invoice is genuine in every particular, and also in the case of such goods or of goods obtained otherwise than by purchase that the price charged for the said goods as represented by the invoice aforesaid or by the entry appears to be a fair market value for such goods, at the place, and at the time that the same were purchased by the importer or consignor thereof.

(2.) No discounts or deductions from the value of any goods chargeable with ad valorem duty shall be allowed unless such discount or deduction be clearly shown to the satisfaction of the Comptroller or other proper Officer on the original invoice or unless the same be verified by the signature of the manufacturer, merchant, or person from whom the goods set forth or described in the invoice were purchased, and by whom such discount or deduction has been or purports to have been actually allowed.

Assessment
of values expressed in foreign coinage.

6. When any invoice for goods purchased in a foreign Country expresses the value of such goods in the coinage of that Country, such value shall be assessed by the Customs authorities in the Colony at the constant exchange value (based on the relative values of the precious metals) of such foreign coinage for sterling money, and the importer shall pay duty, when duty is payable at an ad valorem rate, on the amount calculated at such value.

In all cases where such package is not so marked or labelled or commonly sold or reputed, the duty (if payable on weight) shall be calculated on the gross weight of such package and its contents.

8.—(1.) Goods not prohibited to be imported into or used in the Colony, composed of any article liable to duty as a part or ingredient thereof, shall be chargeable with the full duty payable on such article, or, if composed of more than one article liable to duty, then with the full duty payable on the article charged with the highest rate of duty: Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of any article being a compound of or containing opium in accordance with the last current British Pharmacopœia, and specially imported for medicinal purposes only.

CLIFTON GRANNUM,

Receiver General.

Treasury, Georgetown.

3rd March, 1911.

NOTICE TO PERSONS HAVING ACCOUNTS AGAINST THE COLONIAL GOVERNMENT.

ALL persons having accounts against the Colonial Government up to and including the 15th instant, are requested to render the same to the Heads of Department concerned on or before the 18th instant, and to make application for the settlement thereof on or before the 31st instant.

Accounts for the period 15th to 31st March should also be rendered as far as possible in time to allow of their being settled before the 31st instant.

CLIFTON GRANNUM,

Receiver General.

Treasury, Georgetown,

3rd March, 1911.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

GENERAL JURISDICTION.

THIS 14TH DAY OF MARCH, 1911.

BISHOP, Plaintiff,

versus

BISHOP, Defendant.

The plaintiff in this case seeks to have the action heard ex parte on the ground that the defendant is in default of filing a statement of defence.

It appears from the papers before the Court that the statement of claim was not served on the defendant save by leaving a copy for him at the Registrar's Office.

O. xlviii. R. 2 of the Rules of Court, 1900, permits such method of service in those cases only in which no appearance has been entered or in which no address for service has been given.

In the present case an appearance has been entered and an address for service given. It is however contended that notice of appearance not having been given to the plaintiff's solicitor as required by O. x. R. 7, the entry of appearance must be regarded as of no effect, even though, as stated by the plaintiff's counsel, the plaintiff's solicitor when about to file the statement of claim learnt that an appearance had been entered.

Under the circumstances we think the statement of claim was not sufficiently served by leaving a copy at the Registrar's Office for the defendant, and the plaintiff has therefore failed to show that the defendant is in default, the obligation of filing a statement of defence arising in a case where the plaintiff has to deliver a statement of claim, only on such statement being duly delivered to the defendant. (O. xvii. R. 2, O. xix. R. 7.) The case Smith v. Dobbins (37 L.J. 777) is not on all fours with this case.

The case, therefore, cannot at the present time be heard ex parte under O. xxv. R. 4.
